

NATIONAL MONOLOGUE SLAM

Rules & Regulations

as of April 2, 2018

I. GENERAL The National Monologue Slam is committed to providing a safe, supportive, nurturing opportunity for actors of all ages and experience to learn and grow in their craft. Each convention and competition will provide multiple opportunities to meet and work with industry professionals, and have fun doing so. Everyone is welcome to participate, no matter your experience or talent level. We are here to help you along in your path as a performer.

II. ENTRY INFORMATION

A. CONVENTION ACCESS The purchase of an All-Access Convention Wristband is required to attend the convention and enter the competition. One All-Access Convention Wristband allows one person to attend all convention events and classes, and includes one entry into the Competition. For an additional fee, individuals can purchase additional Competition entries for themselves. Also for an additional fee, individuals can purchase a Master Class Observer Wristband for interested friends and family wishing to participate in classes only. Parents and guardians of minors are invited to observe in the main performance/competition room and all common areas of the convention site for no additional cost, but cannot attend classes without the purchase of a Master Class Observer Wristband. Purchasing an All-Access Convention Wristband does not obligate you to perform in the Competition.

B. PRICES Prices are subject to change without notice and all entries are subject to availability. The 2017-2018 Regional pricing structure is as follows:

- i. All-Access Convention Wristband $300 ($199 for early bird registration)
- ii. Additional Competition Entries $50 each, and must accompany purchase of All-Access Convention Wristband.
- iii. Master Class Observer Wristband $50 each, and must accompany purchase of All-Access Convention Wristband.

C. TYPES OF COMPETITION ENTRIES The Competition consists of three categories: Comedic Monologue, Dramatic Monologue, and Musical Theatre Song. Comedic and Dramatic entries are limited to 90 second monologues of any source, including theatre, film, TV, and/or original. The Musical Theatre Song entries are limited to 3 minutes and can be from any published musical. Piano sheet music or digital recordings of music accompaniment must be provided by the entrant. An audition pianist and playback audio equipment will be provided by the Slam. Each category will have multiple and appropriate age divisions to be determined based on entries.

- D. NUMBER OF ENTRIES Subject to space availability, individuals may perform multiple monologues or songs in the Competition. No individual can win more than one award in the same category and division. For instance, if a competitor performs two dramatic monologues and one comedic monologue in the 18 & Over division, that person is only eligible to win one award in the Adult Dramatic division and one award in the Adult Comedic division.
- E. COMPETITION & CLASS SCHEDULING Each individual will be given a time range for his/her performance time for the day of the competition. National Monologue Slam reserves the right to change performance times and the convention class schedule at any time, for any reason. Requests for specific times will be considered, but cannot be guaranteed. Missed competition times can be made up later in the day should time permit. Please keep in mind that many factors go into the scheduling of auditions and events, including number of entries and participants, local conditions, space constraints and other factors. Events will not be scheduled to begin before 8:00am, nor scheduled to end past 10:00pm.
- F. ENTRY DEADLINES All entries will be accepted on first-come, first-served basis. National Monologue Slam reserves the right to close an event prior to the deadline should the number of entries meet or exceed the allotted schedule.

- H. REFUNDS/CANCELLATION Once entries are processed, there are no refunds of any kind. Deposits for group purchases are non-refundable. If a performer cannot participate due to illness or injury, a refund may be issued at the sole discretion of National Monologue Slam, and only upon receipt of verifiable proof from the performer's doctor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Regional events may be cancelled due to inclement weather or other Act of God, and in such event all said entries for that particular event shall be credited towards a future Regional or rescheduled Regional event. VI. FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. What if I flub up and want another chance?

A. Once all competitions are complete, and if time permits, we will allow “do-overs” for those interested on a first come first served basis. An additional fee may apply. Errors due to technical glitches in music will automatically be offered a “do-over”.

Q. Should I wear a costume and/or bring props?

A. Auditions in real life rarely entail getting dressed in character or the use of props. That said, if your character is a business person, maybe you shouldn't wear a Hawaiian shirt and flip flops. However, you will not be judged on your clothing or on your use of props.

Q. What if I miss my scheduled competition timeslot?

A. If you miss your scheduled competition timeslot, you have forfeited your right to compete. However, if time permits at the end of all other performances, we may allow you to perform at that time, at our sole discretion.

Q. Can I take pictures or record video during the National Monologue Slam?

A. No, personal and third-party photography and recording is strictly prohibited. However, professional photography and videography may be available for purchase on-site from a National Monologue Slam approved vendor.
